7. What did you think of the book? Would you recommend it? Why?

Writing Instructions

1. Use the above questions/topics as your paper outline and answer them in the order they are presented.
2. Use some common sense in how much you write for each topic. The brief discussion of Jacobs and her life is, for example, an introduction that can be covered in one relatively brief paragraph. Other topics will probably require more extensive coverage.
3. Although I don't grade in terms of the length of the paper, under most circumstances I would expect a paper somewhere within the range of 4-5 pages. As a general rule, it is better to write more than less.
4. The paper must be typed using a standard word processing program, double-spaced using normal-sized fonts (11 or 12) and margins.
5. The best grades will go to papers that have discussed each topic/question completely, are well-organized and well-written and follow directions. Points will be deducted for excessive grammatical and/or typographical errors so be sure that you proofread before turning it in.
6. Be careful about plagiarism. If you quote anything from the book, use quotation marks and cite the page number. If you use other sources, identify those sources and use quotation marks and page numbers as appropriate. Failure to do this could result in a grade of 0 for the assignment or, in serious cases, failure of the course.
7. Make and keep a copy of your paper.
8. You don't need a separate title page, but on the first page of this paper you should put your name and the author and title of the book.
9. Papers are due TBA. You may bring them to class that day or send them to my HCC email account. One letter grade will be deducted for each calendar day that the paper is late. Failure to turn in this paper will result in failure of the course.

If you need help with any aspect of this assignment, don't hesitate to contact me. I'll be happy to clarify the topics and show you how to find the required information. I am also willing to look at early drafts of your paper provided you get them to me at least five days before the due date.
