He greeted her at the element of the second process of who had also just arrived, coming from an assignment of the conference room, where everyone was awaring supprised, and they proceeded to the conference room, where everyone was awaring to the conference with the Westerner. looking surprised, and they proceeded to the surprised of the usual handshake greetings with the Westerners and then be new boss. Kelly exchanged the usual nanosmane garden, with the Japanese looking each to the Japanese; an awkward silence and exchange took place, with the Japanese looking each to the Japanese; an awkward stience and extrange to the Japanese that she had studied on the plants. While she attempted a greeting in her limited Japanese that she had studied on the plants. Could be but they extrangly are to the plants of she was relieved to find that the Japanese spoke English, but they seemed very quiet and he No was relieved to find that all thought that "Kelly" was a man, and they all attempted a land

After that, Kelly decided that she would just meet with Peter and postpone the general ing until the next day. She asked them each to prepare a short presentation for her on the for the new account. Whereas the Americans and Germans said they would have it as Japanese seemed refoctant to commit themselves.

Meanwhile, at home Joe was looking into the schools for the children and trying a some contacts to look for a job. Travelling, getting information, and shopping for a proved bewildering, but they decided that they would soon get acquainted with le

At the office the next day, Kelly received a short presentation from the Wester staff, but when it came to the Japanese, they indicated that they had not yet had a chance with their groups and other contacts to come to their decisions. Kelly asked them why the not told her the day before that they needed more time, and when could they be seemed unwilling to give a direct answer and kept their eyes lowered. In an attempt to the atmosphere and get to know her staff. Kelly then began chatting casually and asked a of them about their families.
