FIN 336 Final Project Company List

Overview: The final project for this course is the creation of a multinational performance report. The report will investigate the motivation behind expanding business internationally, whether revenue-related or a cost-related or a combination of both. You will gain a better understanding of international business and the factors that make multinational business complex (e.g., risk management, ethical and legal compliance). As you work through this project, you will explore how the 2007–2008 financial crisis affected multinational corporations (MNCs), both with additional opportunities and potential risks.
