

STUDYDADDY

Get Homework Help
From Expert Tutor

Get Help

Quiz #7

- 1) John Adams believed that government should:
 - a. Ignore the will of the people.
 - b. Have all the branches responsible to the judiciary.
 - c. Have a unicameral house without a higher legislative body.
 - d. Have branches that checked and balanced each other.
- 2) The Articles of Confederation:
 - a. Required a unanimous vote to be amended.
 - b. Allowed one vote per representative.
 - c. Provided for a very strong government.
 - d. Did not recognize slavery.
- 3) What was probably the great weakness with the Articles?
 - a. It did not let the states create an Army or Navy.
 - b. They forgot to add provision to deal with Indian Affairs.
 - c. The Confederation did not have the power to tax.
 - d. The lack of a national post office.
- 4) True or False - Probably the best thing to come out of the Confederation period was the way it dealt with Western lands.
- 5) True or False Shay's Rebellion demonstrated that the Articles of Confederation were too strict in applying punishment to treason.
- 6) True or False Everyone knew that the delegates meeting in Philadelphia intended to create a new government rather than fix the old one.
- 7) The first American Bill of Rights:
 - a. Was part of the Federal Constitution created in Philadelphia in 1787.
 - b. Was tacked on to the end of the Articles of Confederation as an after thought.
 - c. Can be found in the Northwest Ordinance.
 - d. Was a provision in most of the state constitutions ratified in the 1770s.
- 8) Why do you think George Washington contributed very little to the form of the Federal Constitution? (4 Points)
- 9) The right to vote _____ immediately after the Revolution.
 - a) Decreased.
 - b) Increased.
 - c) Was taken away from all minorities
 - d) Stayed about the same.

STUDYDADDY

Get Homework Help
From Expert Tutor

Get Help