ASSIGNMENT 1

Description

The goal of this assignment is for students to demonstrate the knowledge of problems faced by public administrators globally and to conduct a multi-perspective analysis. Students will need to apply leadership strategies to be adapted across different local and global contexts. This should demonstrate the leadership qualities of effective leaders you have learned throughout this course and their application during a time of crisis.

Submission Instructions:

Write a three-page double spaced essay, applying APA 7th Edition Style of writing, Ariel 12, reflecting on the following:

If you are a public official in a position of leadership, how would you handle a massive killing of innocent people in your municipality? Explain the challenges faced and the opportunities that we have to correct this horrific problem that our nation is facing.
