Project Guidelines and Rubric

IDS 105 Project Guidelines and Rubric

Competencies

In this project, you will demonstrate your mastery of the following competencies:

- Describe the factors that influence one's perception of social justice
- Examine the impact of intercultural competence on collaboration and communication
- Utilize interpersonal communication strategies to navigate conflict

Overview

In this course, you have explored your identity and how it pertains to justice, fairness, and equality in the classroom, the community, and the workplace. In this project, you will create a guidebook that will include aspects of social justice, intercultural competence in collaboration and communication strategies to navigate conflict in your personal and professional lives. A guidebook has multiple benefits; in this case, it will be a resource to refer to over time, that explains how you interact, build community, and collaborate with others from intercultural perspectives.

Scenario

Choose one of the following scenarios to focus on for your project. The scenarios and some related conflicts to resolve are detailed in the Materials section. For the scenario you choose, you will choose one of the provided conflicts to address in your template response.

- Scenario 1: School

You are interacting with a very diverse group of peers this term who have different races and ethnicities, socioeconomic backgrounds, and religious beliefs.

- Conflict #1 - Disagreement over feedback or grade from your instructor
- Conflict #2 - Feeling excluded from a group
- Conflict #3 - Determining priorities

- Scenario 2: Personal

It's the time of year when you gather with friends and family. Recent events in the news have caused differences of opinion on current events, creating conflict with those you care about. You are hosting the next holiday celebration with your family members and friends.

- Conflict #1 - Disagreement with a family member or friend about a political issue

- Conflict #1 – Disagreement with a family member or friend about a political issue
- Conflict #2 – Feeling excluded from your friends
- Conflict #3 – Deciding what holidays to celebrate

- Scenario 3: Workplace

The organization you work for is expanding and acquiring an international business, increasing the total employee population across the world.

- Conflict #1 – Disagreement with a colleague over work styles
- Conflict #2 – Poor communication that resulted in a mistake
- Conflict #3 – Working with a colleague who is in a different time zone

Directions

Based on your chosen scenario, respond to each part of the project, listed below, using the Project Template, which is linked in the Supporting Materials section, to demonstrate your understanding of social justice, the benefits of intercultural collaboration and communication, and interpersonal communication. Use the Scenario Profiles, linked in the Supporting Materials section, to support your work on the project. The Scenario Profiles describe each scenario.

Specifically, you must address the following:

Part One: Social Justice

In this section, you will provide a general introduction related to social justice to your guidebook. Address the following criteria:

- Explain the difference between justice, fairness, and equality in the scenario.
- Describe how bias can influence your perception of social justice in the scenario.
- Describe how different narratives in society can impact your perception of social justice.
- Describe the core principles of social justice in the scenario.

Part Two: Intercultural Communication and Collaboration

In this section, you will describe the benefits of intercultural communication and collaboration in the scenario. Address the following criteria:

- Describe how you would demonstrate cultural fluency in the scenario.
- Describe how cultural fluency benefits your self-awareness.
- Describe how an awareness of other cultures can benefit interpersonal communication with people in the scenario.
- Describe how exposure to diverse backgrounds can positively influence communication in the scenario.
- Explain why an awareness of diversity is beneficial to collaboration in the scenario.

Part Three: Communication Strategies to Navigate Conflict

In this section, you will apply the concepts you shared in Parts One and Two to describe strategies you will use to navigate the conflict in the scenario. Address the following criteria:

- Describe the components of the conflict represented in the scenario.

- Describe different interpersonal communication strategies that can be used in conflict resolution.
- Choose an appropriate communication strategy you would employ in the scenario and conflict. Include an explanation.
- Describe the potential challenges of communication in the scenario and conflict.
- Describe the benefits and challenges of using restorative practices to navigate the conflict in the scenario.

What to Submit

To complete this project, you must submit the following:

Submit the completed Project Template as a 3-to-5-page Microsoft Word document. No sources are required. Although Brightspace submissions, you may not use the Video Note tool to complete this assignment.
