Module One Video Reflection Guidelines and Rubric

PSY 491 Module One Video Reflection Guidelines and Rubric

Overview

In Modules One through Seven of this course, you will watch a series of videos from leaders within the SNHU community. The objectives and insights as they pertain to the participants' identity, advocacy, leadership, and motivation. Watching the videos and reflecting on them will help you understand social change identity.

Note: As you progress through the video series and the subsequent module reflections, you will synthesize information provided from the videos. Pay particular attention to specific conceptual themes that emerge from the videos. You will use the knowledge acquired in all module reflection assignments.

Prompt

For this assignment, you will watch the Module One Video|SNHU Leadership and answer the following in 2 to 4 sentences per question.

- Describe which theory of personal change you believe is most applicable to the development of the interview participant's identity.
- Describe why authenticity is so critical to a leader's ability to effect positive social change.

All sources and ideas requiring attribution must be cited according to APA style.

What to Submit

Submit your completed Module One video reflection as a Word document, with sources cited according to APA style.
