Module Two Project Proposal Guidelines and Rubric

PHL 218 Module Two Project Proposal Guidelines and Rubric

Overview

In our global society, numerous ethical issues need to be addressed every day. It is easy to feel overwhelmed and not know where to begin. This assignment will help you begin focusing on a single global ethical issue, which you will explore for your project. Throughout the term, you will consider different perspectives, and you will express your own personal ethical standards as you understand them. You will begin by choosing

Directions

For this assignment, you will choose a topic that you want to explore for your project. The approved list in the PHL 218 Project Resources document provides a specific issue that directly relates to one of the themes provided.

This assignment builds toward portions of Part One and Part Two of the project, in which you will expand on these responses and in Part Three. On this assignment, consult the Project Guidelines and Rubric to become familiar with the scope of the project.

Refer to the PHL 218 Project Resources document to choose a topic. With instructor approval, you may choose a topic that is not on the approved list. Specifically, you must address the following:

1. Describe the specific global ethical issue you will address for this topic.
 - a. Name the focus. (For focus options, see the items under Topic Choices.)
 - b. Name the theme you will address within that focus.
 - c. Name the specific issue you will address within that theme.
2. Describe the prominent ethical dilemma you think exists in this topic.
3. Explain the benefit of using an ethical framework as it relates to your topic.
4. Explain how diverse ethical perspectives can benefit how your topic is addressed.

What to Submit

Submit your proposal as a one- to two-page Microsoft Word document with double spacing, 12-point Times New Roman font, and c guidelines when citing sources both throughout and at the end of your paper. Although you will not be graded on the quality of your work, you will be graded on how to properly cite sources.

Although Brightspace allows the addition of video notes in assignment submissions, you may not use the Video Note tool to complete your assignment.
