Resources: Global Climate Change and Ethical Decision Making

 Listen

Introduction

The resources in this module explore the global problem of climate change and how it can be addressed.

Required Resources

Reading: One World Now: The Ethics of Globalization, Chapter 2

(https://search.ebscohost.com/login.aspx?direct=true&custid=shapiro&authtype=athens,ip&db=nlebk&AN=1344037&site=eds-live&scope=site&ebv=EK&ppid=Page-__-15)

This Shapiro Library resource, which you will use to help you complete this week's discussion and short paper, examines global issues related to Earth's atmosphere. As you read, consider the following:

- How does "a view of fairness" frame the global problem of climate change?
- Why is it difficult to decide who should have the most responsibility for addressing climate change?

Reading: The Paris Agreement (<https://www.un.org/en/climatechange/paris-agreement>)

This resource, which you will use to help you complete this week's short paper, explains what the Paris Agreement is and how it works. As you read, consider the following:

- Why is the Paris Agreement considered “a legally binding international treaty”?
- How does the Paris Agreement address a country’s responsibility to other countries?

Video: How Ethics Can Help You Make Better Decisions

(11:31)

This video, which you will use to help you complete this week’s discussion and short paper, explains how ethical frameworks can assist you with decision making. As you watch, listen, or read, consider the following:

- How can understanding utilitarianism help you make a better decision?
- How is the skill of negotiation related to ethical decision making?
