

STUDYDADDY

Get Homework Help
From Expert Tutor

Get Help

Write a rough draft on the topic with

- An introduction
- Introductory sentences (give background information, ask a question, etc.)
- Brief summaries of the sources that you are using (optional)
- A thesis that states your argument or side (answer the topic question)
- 3 Supporting paragraphs - Each one should have the following parts:
 - A topic sentence that states one reason to defend your thesis
 - Details (general explanations) from society and from your experiences
 - A mix of quotes and paraphrases from BOTH readings to support your details with an in-text citation after each and every quote or paraphrase like (Raviv 309).
 - Details that relate the quote or paraphrase to your point (Bring it back to the big idea
- A closing sentence
- A conclusion
- Sum up your main points, restate your argument, or propose a solution
- A Works Cited Page (Worth 10 points).
- On a new page after your conclusion
- Alphabetize your sources by last name (or title if no name is provided)
- Write Works Cited on the top of the paper and provide a full reference to the readings that you used in MLA format - use pages 39-65 of your Course Guide to do this.

PLEASE CHOOSE ONLY ONE OF THE FOLLOWING TOPICS!

1. Why has immigration historically caused fear and anxiety among American citizens? Use Suarez-Orozco and Suarez-Orozco's "How Immigrants Become Other" and one other source that you find on your own to explore the trend of xenophobia (fear of foreigners) in America.

53%

Done

1. What should America's policies be regarding immigration? Use Suarez-Orozco and Suarez-Orozco's "How Immigrants Become Other" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the regulations that America should adopt regarding immigrants seeking citizenship.
2. What are the challenges facing immigrants in the United States? Use Suarez-Orozco and Suarez-Orozco's "How Immigrants Become Other" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the challenges that this population experiences in America.
3. What should America's policies be regarding unauthorized immigrants whose children are born in the United States? Use Suarez-Orozco and Suarez-Orozco's "How Immigrants Become Other" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the regulations that America should adopt regarding these families.
4. Do you believe that open borders would be mostly beneficial or mostly harmful in the United States? Use Raviv's "If People Could Immigrate

- Anywhere and one other source that you find on your own to argue for or against the idea of open borders.
5. Do you believe that open borders would help to eliminate world poverty? Why or why not?
Use Raviv's "If People Could Migrate Anywhere" and one other source that you find on your own to explain whether open borders would solve this problem.
 6. What are the causes of homophobia in the black community? Use Jacob Hood's "Black Folks, Let's Talk About Homophobia" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the causes of this problem.
 7. What are the best solutions to promote acceptance of LGBTQ individuals in the black community? Use Jacob Hood's "Black Folks, Let's Talk About Homophobia" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the best ways to solve this problem.
 8. Do you believe that schools should permit transgender students to utilize school areas and programs that coincide with their gender identity? Why or why not? Use Emma's "Transgender Students Asked Betsy DeVos for Help" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the policies that schools should adopt regarding transgender students.
 9. Do you believe that all transgender athletes should be permitted to compete on teams that coincide with their gender identity? Why or why not? Use Barnes' "Lia Thomas Controversy Surrounds NCAA Swimming Championships" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the policies that athletic organizations should adopt regarding transgender athletes.
 10. Do you believe that transgender females should be permitted to compete on women's athletic teams? Why or why not? Use Barnes' "Lia Thomas Controversy Surrounds NCAA Swimming Championships" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the policies that athletic organizations should adopt regarding transgender females.
 11. What are the challenges facing the LGBTQ community? Use Savage and Vaid's "It Gets Better" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the challenges facing this population.
 12. What are the best ways to prevent bullying of LGBTQ youth in schools? Use Savage and Vaid's "It Gets Better" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the best ways to solve this problem.
 13. Has equal treatment of LGBTQ people improved in recent years? Use Savage and Vaid's "It Gets Better" and one other source that you find on your own to discuss recent progress in LGBTQ rights.
 14. What are the best ways to solve the problem of discrimination against LGBTQ individuals? Use Savage and Vaid's "It Gets Better" and one other source that you find on your own to describe the best ways to solve this problem and promote equal treatment of LGBTQ people.

STUDYDADDY

Get Homework Help
From Expert Tutor

Get Help