Module Three Short Answer Assignment Guidelines and Rubric

HUM 102 Module Three Short Answer Assignment Guidelines and Rubric

Overview

Many times, as we engage with a creative work, our own biases and assumptions creep into how we interpret the work. In many cases, the work itself. Everyone has biases and assumptions, which is not necessarily a bad thing. Our biases and assumptions influence our observations. In this assignment, you will have a chance to analyze some of your own biases and assumptions regarding the topic you chose for your project.

Directions

In this short answer assignment, you will consider the topic you chose for your project (diversity, mental health, or activism) and the specific questions related to that topic. Specifically, you must address the following:

1. Describe some perceptions and observations present in your thinking regarding your chosen topic.
 - A. What factors or experiences may have contributed to these perceptions?
 - B. What is your prior knowledge about this particular topic?
2. Explain your own biases regarding the topic you chose for your project.
 - A. What assumptions do you have about this topic?
 - B. Where do you think those assumptions influenced your perception?
 - C. What are your stances on issues about the topic?
