Instructions: X2 Essay

ASAM 300

Goal

Your goal for the essay is to demonstrate your understanding and insight into the course materials and class activities. The essay should reflect sufficient detail to show that you have completed course readings and are reflecting upon and critically engaged with the course. This writing exercise covers class discussions, videos and readings for Week 1 to 6.

Description

Write a total of 3 to 5 pages double-spaced answering the question:

“Where are you from?”

Answering the following may be helpful: How have the readings help you understand the relationship between your own individual experiences, history and culture with “Asian Pacific America” and/or “America.”

Include your name, course#, section#, and date in the upper right corner. No name = zero points.

Use specific examples from course materials (required), your own experiences and ideas to illustrate your answer.

Submit online by 23:59 on Friday. March 3
