  - This article is about the background information of homeless issue. It has a chronology time line of how the problem increased over time.
  - “But, they insist, anyone receiving a shelter berth should first earn it, even if that only means agreeing to take his anti-psychotic medication.” This quote fits into my paper. I am using this quote to prove my point of : homeless people should earn what they get, even it is government subsidies.

- Katel, Peter. "Can New Government Policies End Homelessness?" Housing the Homeless 24.36 (2014): n. pag. CQResearcher. Web. 26 Feb. 2017.
  - This article listed some anti-homelessness laws.
  - Is providing housing the best way to end homelessness is the question debated in the Pro and Con section. An example is given that New York City has given so many time and money on rehousing families. But a daily report proofs that is not effective.

- "Home Free?." New Yorker, vol. 90, no. 28, 22 Sept. 2014, pp. 42-1.
  - This article explained the Housing First program and showed it is effective. Furthermore, the author provided a new way which is instead of putting homeless people in shelter, located people into permanent supportive housing first, and then give them help.
  - This is proved to be more effective than the tradition way which is let them take the treatment first before putting into permeant housing.

- Batten, Donna. "Homeless Person." Gale Virtual Reference Library. N.p., n.d. Web.
  - This is an article explaining the terms that is being used in this issue.
