

Article Review Format and Grading Rubric

Use this template for structuring your responses to the questions. All references and citations should be formatted in APA.

Student Name:

Assignment:

Article Identification (5 points)

Include the article reference here, formatted in APA as in the example below:

Martins, L., Eddlestone, K.A. & Viega, J.F. (2002). Moderators of the relationship between work-family conflict and career satisfaction. Academy of Management Journal, 45(2), 399-409.

Summary (10 points)

The article should be summarized (using your own words) in 2-3 paragraphs, focusing on the author's main points. What was the purpose of the study/paper? Who participated? What data was collected? Were there any significant findings?

Critique (15 points)

In 2-3 paragraphs, explain how this article impacted your understanding of the research topic. Did this article add to your knowledge of the topic?

Application (15 points)

In 2-3 paragraphs, discuss how you might apply what you've learned from the article. Do you believe the article will change the way you approach a situation, project, or discussion?

APA Formatting (5 points)

Use proper APA formatting for references and citations. Remember, the reference for the article being reviewed must be included at the beginning of the review. Include a reference list at the end of the review for any other works cited.

Remember:

Identify and define the topic of the article. Demonstrate an understanding of the topic. Apply the topic. Cite sources.

Total points: 50