Article Analysis

Be very precise and concise in your article's review (i.e. use vignettes). Exercise your critical and synthesis capacity.

The deliverable has two components: A) A one-page long critical review using the structure below (use font Arial 10, single space to write your comments) and B) A mental map (on a separate page; see example).

Article title & Author
(s)

What is the purpose of the article?
What are the main idea & key supporting ideas?

What evidence does the author(s) provide to make his/her case?
Can you provide one example where you could apply the article's ideas?

What have you learned from this article?
What did you like the most from this article?
