Discussion Rubric: Undergraduate

Your active participation in the discussion forums is essential to your overall success this term. Discussion questions are designed to make connections between the course content and the larger concepts and goals of the course. These discussions offer you the opportunity to share your thoughts, ask questions for clarification, and gain insight from your classmates' responses and instructor's guidance.

Requirements for Discussion Board Assignments

Students are required to post one (1) initial post and to follow up with at least two (2) response posts for each discussion board.

For your initial post (1), you must do the following:

- Compose a post of one to two paragraphs.
- In Module One, complete the initial post by Thursday at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time.
- In Modules Two through Eight, complete the initial post by Thursday at 11:59 p.m. of your local time zone.
- Take into consideration material such as course content and other discussion boards from the current module and previous modules, when appropriate (make sure you are using proper citation methods for your discipline when referencing scholarly or popular resources).

For your response posts (2), you must do the following:

- Reply to at least two different classmates' posts in the thread.
- In Module One, complete the two response posts by Sunday at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time.
- In Modules Two through Eight, complete the two response posts by Sunday at 11:59 p.m. of your local time zone.
- Demonstrate more depth and thought in your responses. Avoid "You are wrong." Guidance is provided in the prompt.

Instructor Feedback: This activity uses an integrated rubric in Blackboard. Students can view instructor feedback in the Gradebook. For more information, review these instructions.
