

40 | LAB #5 Case Study on Issues Related to Sharing Consumers' Confidential Information

Lab #5 - Assessment Worksheet

Case Study on Issues Related to Sharing Consumers' Confidential Information

Course Name and Number: _____

Student Name: _____

Instructor Name: _____

Lab Due Date: _____

Overview

In this lab, you explained the privacy issues related to an EFF case study, you identified U.S. privacy law violations and their implications, and you assessed the impact of those violations on consumer confidential information.

Lab Assessment Questions & Answers

1. What is the Electronic Frontier Foundation's mission statement?
2. Did the U.S. government violate the constitutional rights of U.S. citizens by ordering the NSA to review consumer confidential privacy information?
3. Why is the Hepting v. AT&T case crucial to the long-term posture of how the U.S. government can or cannot review consumer confidential information?
4. If Hepting v. AT&T results in "Big Brother" being allowed to eavesdrop and/or review the local and toll telephone dialing and bills of individuals, will U.S. citizens and consumers have any privacy rights left regarding use of communication technologies?
5. What are the legal implications of consumer privacy information being shared?

6. What are the ethical implications of consumer privacy information being shared?

7. What are the information systems security implications of consumer information being shared?

8. What law allowed a federal judge to dismiss Hepting v. AT&T and other lawsuits against telecommunication service providers participating in the warrantless surveillance program authorized by the president?

9. True or false: EFF claimed that the ruling set forth by FISAAA was unconstitutional.